

UNC Eshelman School of Pharmacy Halloween Scavenger Hunt

Instructions: Solve the clues below and snap a photo of your answer. Submit as many answers as you can to stlibb@email.unc.edu. Photos of submissions will be posted on the Pharmacy HR Website (<http://faopharmacy.unc.edu/human-resources/>) so check throughout the day and see what your colleagues have been up to!

Grand prize for the first employee to submit photo answers for all 10 questions. Prizes for all employees who submits photos answers for five of the questions below.

Have fun getting out and exploring your School and interacting with your colleagues!

Good Luck!

1. Selfie with person dressed in Halloween costume (or a selfie of yourself if you are in costume).
2. Selfie with Banks D. Kerr.
3. Selfie with someone who has been employed with Pharmacy for less than a year.
4. Selfie with someone who has been employed with Pharmacy for more than 5 years.
5. Selfie with the new Senior Director of Marketing and Communications.
6. Take a photo with one of the buildings that houses Pharmacy employees: this building was formerly referred to as the Imaging Research Building, and was named for a Denver-based philanthropist who has made substantial contributions to the university.
7. Take a photo with the Halloween decorations at the SGC.
8. Take a picture with the street sign of the location where the iconic Chapel Hill Halloween celebration takes place.
9. Take a picture with the Office of Student Affairs employee who is a huge Tennessee Volunteers fan (if you can catch him/her between meetings).
10. Take a photo of a pumpkin decorated with a "pharmacy theme" (mini pumpkins are located in the HR/Communications suite in the Beard Basement – come down and grab one to decorate).
